About the Webinar :

Literature is a form of art that reflects the current norms of society, ethos of culture and tradition. As in present times, English Literature manifests various current studies on intellectual, linguistics, artistic and aesthetics. Modern age is an era of cybernetics which engulfed the gap between have and have not. It, even inspires the masses to delve into the world of imagination to learn and reflect on current issues. In an age of globalization, we can witness many new trends and studies related to English literature as -micro fiction, flash fiction, graphic novels, hybridity of genres, digital humanities, multi-cultural context, hyper-text, blogging, six words novels, twillers, twaikus, twistlers etc. The purpose of the Webinar is to examine current studies in English Literature and to define new approaches that will shape the future of young generation.
